STANDARD BUYS SITE FOR HOME

POLAND-CHINA ASSOCIATION TO LOCATE EAST OF POSTOFFICE.

NEW COMMITTEE TO PICK BUILDING PLAN

Directors Decide On Choice of 18 Proposed Locations—Begin in the Spring on $10,000 Headquarters.

The 66-foot lot fronting on East Fifth street, just east of the postoffice was selected as a site for the new $10,000 home for the Standard Poland-China Record association at a special meeting of the board of directors of the swine association here this morning. The property was owned by James Saunders. The frame residence and barn now on the site, occupied by Harry Allen, is to be razed within thirty days. The purchase price does not include the buildings thereon. The grading for the house, it is believed, will be begun by April. The lot will be graded down to a level with the postoffice grade.

One of three plans for the association headquarters, which were submitted to the directors today for their examination, will be decided upon later by a special building committee of five men, which was chosen this afternoon by the directorate. This committee will be given the opinion of the directors relative to the plans this afternoon, but the definite decision will be made by them.

To Provide Ample Light.

Instead, the committee will be given full power to act in this matter, change plans where deemed beneficial, advertise for bids for erecting the building and to have power to award the contract and supervise the construction in a general way.

The building, it is estimated, will cost between $10,000 and $11,000, including a large vault to cost in the neighborhood of $1,500. It will be one story high, of brick construction, with a frontage of 46 feet on East Fifth street, and will extend northward about 60 feet. The rear half, however, will probably not be so wide as the frontage, according to Ray Davis, association secretary.

The building will set back from the street about twenty feet, while ample space for light on each side will be provided by placing the home as near the center of the lot as possible.

Main Street Site Next Choice.

As far as is known now, according to Mr. Davis, the building will have the general outlines of a residence, with tile roofing. A small basement to house a furnace for heating will be provided. The building will house only the offices of the association, the initial plans to build a flat and lease the second story being abandoned by the directors and building committee.

Of the other seventeen sites submitted, the one occupied by Martin Borrusch, directly north of the First Methodist church, was second choice, the balloting being 1 to 3 for that location.

The sixteen other sites proposed were scattered over several of the business blocks of Maryville. Among those proposed were the J. D. Frank residence, Second and Buchanan streets, occupied by Mrs. Ella Shipp; the lot on North Market street, across from the Washington school building; several lots across from and east of the present headquarters of the association, Third and Market streets; directly east of and across the street from the bottling works on West Fourth street; at the rear of the John Gray residence, North Buchanan street, and others in the business section.

Inspected Each Site.

The selection of the site was made in a systematic way. The building committee, composed of W. O. Garrett and Fred P. Robinson of this city, first visited each of the eighteen proposed sites and numbered each from 1 to 18, listed the size, price, suitability physically and whether vacant or in use.

This list was then submitted to the directorate, which met here today, after which the board made a visit to each proposed. It then met in the association headquarters to vote on a site. The first ballot eliminated all but the one finally selected and that next to the Methodist church. The second ballot resulted in the site on East Fifth street being chosen.

The members of the directorate who were present at the special meeting today were W. O. Garrett and Fred P. Robinson of Maryville; Thomas J. Dawe, Troy, Kan., and Thomas A. Shattuck, Hastings, Neb. J. C. Meese of Ord, Neb., was unable to come on account of living at such a long distance and a tie-up in train service, while L. R. McClarnon of Braddyville, Ia., recently held a Poland-China sale and was busy in shipping out the animals. No reason was given for the absence of S. S. Spangler of Milan.

Has Outgrown Present Home.

The association has been housed in the present offices for the last twenty years, and each year it has become more crowded and the facilities retarded more and more the work of the officers.

The one big convenience which the new home will give, is in the proximity to the post office, as virtually all of the business of the association is done through the mails and not through personal contact with the members.

Two of the three plans submitted were looked over by the directors this morning. They were by Martin Borrusch of this city, which called for a two-story building, and by James H. Schaack of Seattle, Wash. The plans of a St. Joseph firm were examined this afternoon. It is said one of the plans of Mr. Borrusch has been eliminated because it calls for a two-story building.

TOWNSHIP RACES ARE KEENER

Announcement of E. E. Tilton for Assessor, Makes Political Contest More Strenuous.

With the announcement this morning of E. E. Tilton as a Democratic candidate for the position of assessor of Polk township, the race for the various township offices grows keener and keener. For assessor, however, Tilton has only one avowed opponent yet. He is Ed F. Hamlin, present incumbent, also a Democrat. Others probably will announce before the party caucuses, however.

The hardest fought township contest will be for the office of collector, for which position five already announced their candidacy. Three are Democrats and two are Republicans. The Democrats are: Henry Thorp, W. S. Robey and W. A. Burris. The Republicans are: C. L. Gann and Clarence Green.

No parties have yet announced for places on the Township board, for constable or for justices of the peace of Polk township. It is said none of the present members of the township board will consent to taking the place again. They are E. H. Bainum, trustee; Ernest Wray and E. P. Powell. During their reign the township voted and expended $50,000 for road and bridge improvements within the district.

There are one constable and three justices of the peace to be chosen at the election next month, besides township board, assessor and collector.

CONCERT SINGER BECOMES ILL.

Mrs. May Denny Unable to Finish Number—Normal Quartet Aids Musically.

Just before concluding the singing of "Where the River of Love Flows On," at the band concert at the Empire theater yesterday afternoon, Mrs. May Denny became ill and had to be assisted from the stage. Mrs. Denny had sung several previous Sundays at the concerts.

A quartet of Normal students, consisting of Wade Henderson, Ray McPherron, Edgar Hull and William Utter, gave one number at the concert, while T. B. Maulding and Ed Schumacher gave a cornet duet.

The concert drew a large audience.

HAS BIG INFLUENCE

AFFECTS OF BAPTIST REVIVAL NOTICED IN POLICE COURT.

CHRISTIANS COMMEND

Christian Board Adopts Resolution of Commendation—To Receive Converts Thursday Night.

That the five weeks religious campaign recently held by the First Baptist church, during which time 385 conversions were professed, has had a marked influence on the lives of many, is shown in the police court records of Maryville, perhaps as well as any place. According to Mayor U. S. Wright and City Clerk C. W. Bennett, the work of the city police has diminished considerably since the revival, particularly relative to drunk cases.

These records show that from January 3, when the revival began, to February 15, there were but fifteen cases to come up in court, many of the defendants in these cases being from out of the city, or held on charges other than drunkenness, or peace disturbance. There have been no cases of this nature for several days and only five since the first conversion was professed at the Baptist revival.

Christians Commence Work.

The saloons also report a noticeable effect since the revival particularly in Maryville patronage which has decreased alarmingly the last month.

As a proof of the appreciation held by the First Christian church of the Baptist evangelistic campaign and the most active workers in it, a resolution of commendation has been adopted by the board of the Christian church. It was read at the evangelistic service there last night and a short comment relative to it, made by the Rev. R. L. Finch, pastor.

Plan Baptist Reception.

Active plans now are under way by special committees of the First Baptist church, for the reception to the new members, which is to be held in the church Thursday night. It is believed fully 650 members of that church will attend, including the 275 newly acquired members as a result of the revival. About twenty-five more of those who professed conversion at that time, were baptised and formally added to the congregation prior to the services last night, while more are expected within this week.

While the reception is planned primarily to get the new members acquainted with each other and with the older members there also will be a musical program and light refreshments.

Reception Committees.

The general committee on arrangements is composed of Dr. Karl Matlotte, G. B. Holmes, Sr., and Mrs. J. H. Spiers. The auxiliary committees for the reception are:

Entertainment—Mabel Hunt, Myra Hull, Katherine Helwig, Edward McDonald and Robert Jones.

Music—Mrs. W. M. Westbrook, Mrs. H. L. Raines and Prof. W. M. Westbrook.

Refreshments—Orrel Helwig, Mrs. R. B. Montgomery and Hazel Everhart.

Reception—Pastor and Mrs. L. M. Hale and daughter, the deacons and wives and the trustees and their wives.

New Table for Soils Laboratory.

J. R. Brink has shown his ingenuity in the construction of a table for the soils laboratory at the State Normal. It is not a marble topped table, but one built with a concrete top. The top is of concrete rather than wood, so that it will not catch on fire from the gas burners which are to be used on it. The table is equipped with gas, water and sewer connections and will hold a hot plate, drying oven and steam bath, to be used for work in soil physics. Eventually a hood will be built over the table to carry off the steam and gases from the ovens and burners.—Green and White Courier.

Home from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Douglas, who have been spending several months in southern California, are expected to return to Maryville the last of the week. Mrs. J. F. Douglas and daughter, Nellie, who accompanied them, will remain for a longer stay.

Purchases Barber Shop.

Clouser, recently employed at Yeaman's barber shop, will be employed by Mr. Avitt. Mr. Avitt will take full charge of the shop March 1.

BEGIN A REVIVAL

CHRISTIANS OPEN EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN—C. A. FINCH TO LEAD.

HAVE CHOIR DIRECTOR

Harry Fritz Directed Large Chorus in Opening Services Yesterday—Pastor Too Ill to Conduct.

The Rev. Charles A. Finch of Kansas City arrived in Maryville at noon today to begin tonight a series of revival services at the First Christian church. The Rev. Mr. Finch is a brother of the pastor, the Rev. Robert L. Finch, and he cancelled a previous evangelistic date in order to come to Maryville and help his brother during the meeting.

The pastor, Rev. Mr. Finch, had expected to conduct the services, but a return of a throat trouble with which he has been suffering several weeks made it impossible for him to carry on the services alone.

Choir Director is Here.

Harry O. Fritz, tenor, who will have charge of the song service during the meetings, arrived in the city Saturday and conducted the services Sunday morning and evening. He has a voice of splendid range and quality and delighted every one who heard him yesterday. In addition to the choir work, Mr. Fritz will sing a solo each evening, and other special numbers will be given.

The services opened last night with a sermon by the pastor on the subject "Jesus, the Healer." A number of conferences have been held by the laymen of the church, preparatory to taking an active part in the work of evangelism during the coming series of meetings.

Charles A. Finch of Topeka, Kan., a brother to the Rev. R. L. Finch, who will take charge of and conduct the revival which began at the First Christian church yesterday morning, has been in the ministerial work since his graduation from college in 1897. He was pastor of the First Christian church of Topeka continuously for thirteen years prior to his resignation last fall. Since that time he has conducted special meetings. The last, in the First Christian church, Kansas City, Kan., netted seventy-nine conversions, though the meetings lasted but a short time.

Mr. Finch was graduated from Cotner college Lincoln, Neb., in 1896 and from the University of Chicago one year later. Even during his college years he held pastorates in small churches nearby. His first pastorate after leaving college, however, was at Cheney, Kan., then at Newton, Kan. He went from there to Topeka.

Governor Has Reception.

He was perhaps held in the highest esteem and held the closest relations with the residents of Topeka, during his pastorate there, of any other minister in the Kansas capitol city. On his retirement there last fall, a banquet to 800 was given in his honor by the Masonic lodges. Governor Hodges also gave a reception at the executive mansion in Mr. Finch's honor. Mr. Finch is 45 years old.

Holds Public Sale.

The public auction of twelve horses and mules, twenty cattle and thirty-three head of hogs, besides farm implements and feed, was held by Seipel Brothers at the J. B. Garner farm, seven miles southwest of Maryville, today.

Lona Perrin Here.

Lona Perrin, who is employed on the Des Moines (Ia.) Register Leader, came to Maryville Saturday afternoon to visit until Monday with his mother, Mrs. Alice Perrin.

ROADS IN BAD CONDITION

Melting of Snow and Ice, Followed by Freeze, Makes Highways Almost Impassable.

Farmers coming into Maryville today report the country roads in an almost impassable condition in places as a result of the thaw of snow and ice the last few days of last week, followed by the freeze yesterday and last night. Even the streets within Maryville which are not paved are in a bad condition as a result of the recent thaws and the country automobile is virtually a stranger within the city now.

Rural route mail carriers also report considerable delay in delivery the last few days.

Irwin, an attorney, refused to go to church with her, spoke in monosyllables and caused her grievous mental suffering because he would not let her crochet in his law office at night, so that she might accompany him home when he finished his work, Judge Monroe held the evidence was insufficient, and yesterday denied Mrs. Mabel Irwin a divorce."

IS OLD CUSTOM DYING?

Postal Officials and Stationers Say Fewer Valentines Are Sent Now.

Is valentine day becoming obsolete? It appears that way, if the postoffice, through which the missives of tenderness and affection are distributed, is any criterion.

For a number of years the valentine day mail has been falling off, the post-office attaches say, and it isn't nearly as heavy now as it was five years ago. Stationers and others who handle valentines say that the practice of sending them is dying out and there is little sale for them now.

The man who spends his money as fast as he gets it is not giving any serious thought as to his future welfare. There is hardly a man who makes money that could not each week be putting aside a small amount to protect himself from want in years to come.

While the minimum temperature for the twenty-four hours prior to 7 o'clock this morning was but 26 degrees above zero, according to J. R. The maximum temperature was 34 degrees.

TWO BIG BATTLES ON EAST FRONT

Teutons and Russians Try Conclusions on Frontier.

TEST TO COME IN BUKOWINA.

Several Infantry Attacks and Continuation of Artillery Bombardment in Western War Zone—Rheims Again Suffers—St. Mihiel Under Fire.

WAR SUMMARY

In Poland the opposing forces are in alignment to the south of Warsaw, while the Austro-German troops are making advances in Bukovina. In the western arena activity has been increased along the entire front. More than a million Germans are being assembled, and formidable entrenchments are being prepared along the Rhine.

London, Feb. 15.—Two big battles, it is believed, have begun on the Russian side of the East Prussian frontier and on the river Sereth within Bukovina. The Russian forces have with drawn both in East Prussia and Bukovina in the face of superior German and Austrian armies, so that they might be enabled to concentrate and come into closer touch with their lines of communication.

The official reports make only a brief statement in reference to the operations at these two extremes of the eastern front, but what they do say indicates that the Russians have already reached the lines on which Grand Duke Nicholas decided to give battle.

The rest of the campaign in the east, even the fighting in the Carpathians, which is proceeding under the worst weather conditions, is overshadowed by these greater events, on the result of which both sides are staking so much.

In the west there has been a continuation of heavy artillery bombardment, in which Rheims has again suffered, and several infantry attacks on different parts of the line, in which both sides claim to have been successful. From unofficial sources comes the news that St. Mihiel, on the Meuse, which the Germans have held so long, has come under the fire of the French guns, which shows that the French have either made an advance in this region or have brought up heavier guns in an effort to dislodge the Germans.

INVITES ALL TO SCHOOL MEET.

County School Superintendent Bert Cooper Urges Big Attendance Here February 27.

Invitations to the more than 700 teachers and school board members of Nodaway county to attend the annual convention of teachers and board directors here February 27, are being sent out today by Mrs. John Porter, assistant to County School Superintendent Bert Cooper. A program is included. The invitation, in part, reads:

"Of course you are intending to come to the big school board convention and teachers' meeting, which is to be held at the court house in Maryville Saturday, February 27. It's an opportunity to meet and discuss live school topics that you would not care to miss.

"But I am so anxious that you shall certainly be here that I feel justified in sending this notice as a reminder. And I am going to ask you to make it a part of your duty to see to it that each member of the board in your district shall come. Not only do we expect every board member, but the women folks are expected, so don't forget to bring your wife. Those who are not yet married should bring their sweetheart.

"As a matter of convenience we suggest that on this particular day you get up at 4 in the morning, milk the cows, hitch the roan mare to the buckboard or crank the Ford, load the whole family and come to Maryville real early with your system in proper condition to enjoy the day.

"Maryville will be our hostess and the mayor will unlock the town and throw the key in the well.

"And there is serious business to discuss—matters that affect your school. Good speakers will be here and an extremely interesting program has been prepared.

WRITES FROM FLORIDA.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Hopper Tell of Interesting Life at Tampa Bay.

We left Maryville on the evening of January 4, and after stopping for a visit with relatives in Kansas City, Cherryvale, Girard and Arcadia, Kan., until January 15, we boarded the Florida special at Kansas City and reached Tampa, Fla., on the afternoon of January 17.

The route through Arkansas, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Florida showed the appearance of a flood. We saw nothing but very tall straight pine trees with small buckets hanging on them to catch the turpentine. We passed through many cotton fields, where the cotton had been picked, leaving just their golden stalks to make them ragged and unsightly looking. In passing along where there were dark cabins, the little pickaninnies would come out and dance for the benefit of the travelers.

We saw very little stock of any kind, and what little we did see looked as if a small breeze would blow them over. In fact, they looked as if they were fit to do nothing with but make soup. Hogs were scarce as hen's teeth.

When about half way between Jacksonville and Tampa we began to see the first fruit trees. We saw peach trees in full bloom, orange trees loaded with their golden fruit, grape fruit, tangerines, and other citrus fruits being loaded for market. We have all kinds of fresh fruits and vegetables brought to our doors every day.

Tampa is a city of 65,000. It has a number of fine hotels, the finest one being the Tampa Bay hotel. It is situated in the midst of a magnificent park, was built at a cost of three million dollars and will accommodate one thousand guests.

The city has plenty of churches. We have attended three of the leading Methodist churches and have decided to attend the Hyde Park church, as it is nearest our home. We have visited the Tampa chapter, O. E. S., and were made to feel very much at home. We are only four blocks from the court house, and often sit there in the park where we meet many other tourists. Our room overlooks the bay and we get a fine view and we like to watch the vessels unload.

There has been plenty of rain since we came. There is no mud, nothing but sand. There is something going on all the time. The Y. M. C. A. has a Chautauqua this week and part of next. The Gasparilla carnival opened February 12 and lasts five days. The city has been preparing for the event for weeks. We expect to go to St. Petersburg and spend some time before coming home.

I was interrupted while writing this letter to go down to the bay to see several large torpedo boats and submarines. They are a wonderful sight. We went on board the Pasaria, the auxiliary cruiser, from whose deck the first guns at the siege of Vera Cruz were fired. The boat is 497 feet long, has ten small guns. We also went on board the torpedo boat and one of the submarines. We were not allowed to go down where the men stay, but we obtained a good idea of how the boat is built and operated.

We hope our friends in Maryville will find something of interest in this letter.

The triangle or pyramid is recognized as the symbol of strength, stability, and permanency.

The accompanying illustration is typical of the pyramid that has been built around DENHAM'S Harness.

Competition has sprung up—it is bound to—but practically all of it has been based on merely one leg of the triangle price. The purchaser who fell for the bait required only a few samples of the goods to demonstrate that there is very little meat on the bone.

A Tribute.

Just twenty-three years ago the thirteenth of March, 1915, a dear life came into this world, and truly it came to bless many lives. Emma Deschauer Kildow was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kildow.

When Emma was three weeks old her mother was called home, and her father went to be with the mother when Emma was seven years old. At the age of three weeks she was brought to the home of Mrs. Catherine Miller, where she continued to live. She grew into the hearts and lives of this family, and as her beautiful life unfolded year by year, they were bound to each other by a love which can never be severed.

There was never aught but joy and gladness as this dear life gave in return such unspeakable love to those who were so devoted to her. Her devotion to the only mother she ever knew was beautiful indeed, and the ties which bound them one to the other are too sacred to dwell upon.

In many ways which cannot find expression in words, Emma repaid the loving care and tender ministrations of those who knew that their love had not been in vain, but who daily felt the helpfulness and uplifting influence of such a sacred relationship.

Her life was so unselfish that her thought was ever of others. In the last two years of her life, when sickness and discouragements came, she was thoughtful of the dear ones left she might make their burden greater, and she kept these things in her heart. All through her suffering she was as a sunbeam casting bright rays and gladness about her.

Upon her return to the sanitarium, after a few months' absence, her coming was heralded with joy. The fast friends she had made there said "Our sunshine has come to us again." Her friends cannot be numbered, and she prized them more than all else. Truly to know her was to love her. Always unselfish, gentle and appreciative, there was not the least word or action from her friends but found response in her soul.

She tried in words to express what the messages and expressions of love, shown in so many ways, meant to her, but none can ever know how they helped to cheer her and give her new hope in the last months of her life. Who of us can say that we are not the better for having known and lived near such a blessed life. Even to the last she was hopeful and looked forward to the time when she would again greet those who were so dear to her. God called and she went to be with Him and with those she had loved and lost. Her life was pure and undefiled before God, whom she glorified in her everyday living.

Though we are sad and lonely because she has gone from us, we know she has fought the good fight, and even now has won the crown which the righteous Father gives to all who put their trust in Him. The memory of her life will live forever in our hearts. M. M. R.

Emma Kildow was born and reared in Maryville, Mo. Two years and a half ago she went to California, where she remained until a few weeks ago, when she went to Prescott, Ariz., hoping to be benefited by the climate. Her death occurred there January 2, 1915. The funeral was held January 7, at her home, in Maryville.
